A friendly, well-maintained house is for sale in a quiet part of Somogysimonyi. Somogysimonyi is a peaceful rural village in Somogy County, ideal for those who wish to live in a calm, nature-oriented environment. The friendly local community offers a tranquil lifestyle, while larger towns and regional centers are easily accessible. The surrounding area provides excellent opportunities for nature lovers: nearby forests, hills, and streams invite you for walks, hiking, and cycling, offering relaxation in the heart of nature. For larger shopping needs, nearby towns such as Marcali and Nagykanizsa offer a wider selection of supermarkets, markets, and various services. Entertainment options such as cinemas, restaurants, and cultural events can also be found in the surrounding towns. Somogysimonyi is particularly attractive for those who want to enjoy a quiet countryside lifestyle. The village has approximately one hundred residents, and the houses and properties are well maintained. The motorway is located 5 km away.
